

Waste References

Website	Links
DEFRA The Department for Business Enterprise and Regulatory Reform leads the Government's drive to raise UK levels of productivity, creates the conditions for business success and strengthens the economic performance of all the regions.	http://www.defra.gov.uk/ENVIRONMENT/waste
Envira Ltd is an Environment Agency licensed broker of waste material	http://www.envira.co.uk/recycle.htm
The Environment Agency The public body for protecting and improving the environment in England and Wales.	http://www.environment-agency.gov.uk/
The Environment Agency WM2 Technical Guidance: Hazardous Waste The WM2 guidance was updated in May 2008. It contains comprehensive guidance on whether waste is hazardous and a consolidated copy of the European Waste Catalogue.	www.environment-agency.gov.uk/subjects/waste
EHS The Environment & Heritage Service advises on, and implements, the Government's environmental policy and strategy in Northern Ireland.	http://www.ehsni.gov.uk/waste/
Envirowise Envirowise offers for free best practice publications and training for environment and waste management improvements.	http://www.envirowise.gov.uk/
The Industry Council for Packaging and the Environment is a research organisation, which draws together an influential group of companies who share a vision of the future where all production, distribution, and consumption are sustainable	http://www.incpen.org/
Institute of hospitality WRAP (the Waste and Resources Action Programme) and the Institute of Hospitality (formerly HCIMA) have worked together in conjunction with the Centre for Environmental Studies in the Hospitality Industry (CESHI) at Oxford Brookes University to provide advice and information on waste and recycling for the hospitality industry. Their website provides the links to Fact Files with useful information and tips for hospitality businesses on recycling and waste management.	http://www.instituteofhospitality.org/info_services/recycling
National Waste Packaging Database is a web-based database, the Advisory Committee on Packaging, companies	https://npwd.environment-agency.gov.uk/

obligated by the packaging regulations, reprocessors, exporters and compliance schemes.
Net Regs NetRegs provides free environmental guidance for small businesses in the UK. They will help you to understand what you need to do to comply with environmental legislation and protect the environment.	http://www.netregs.gov.uk/
Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development provides a guideline for improving recyclable markets.	http://www.oecd.org/dataoecd/
Recyclenow Recycle Now is the national recycling campaign for England, aimed at encouraging more of us to recycle more things, more often and to understand the positive benefits of our actions.	http://www.recyclenow.com/shopping/index.html
The Recycling Consortium UK's leading sustainable waste management businesses, who have been working closely together over the last three years for clients such as WRAP and DEFRA.	http://www.recyclingconsortium.org.uk/recycling/
SEPA Scottish Environment Protection Agency Provides information for a wide range of businesses on how to achieve significant cost savings and environmental benefits by addressing waster minimisation on their premises.	http://www.sepa.org.uk/
WasteWatch A leading environmental organisation promoting sustainable resource management in the UK by campaigning for all areas of the society to reuse recycle and reduce their waste.	http://www.wastewatch.org.uk/
Waste Aware Business It is a national campaign run by Waste Aware Scotland. It aims to raise awareness of how businesses can deal with their waste more sustainably.	http://www.wasteawarebusiness.org.uk/
WRAP A non-profit company supported by funding from DEFRA, the DTI and the devolved administrations, promotes sustainable waste management by creating stable and efficient markets for recycled materials and products. WRAP provide resources to help buy recyclates for manufacturing, or to recycle their materials.	http://www.wrap.org.uk/